

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Be of Swedish descent (have Swedish blood in your veins).

Be 20 years or older

Be able to travel to another city or state for finalist callbacks,

Be able to travel to Sweden to participate in the production of this amazing adventure.

We will soon let you know the time and period of the shooting, most likely late spring early summer.

Willing to get a medical exam and have a criminal background check done on you.

All lodging and transportation to Sweden will be paid for if you are one of the participants. More information will follow if you are being invited to the callbacks.

Eligibility Requirements Please note that the following eligibility requirements must be met in order to proceed with the application process.

If the producers (the “Producers”) of the Program select you as one of the Applicants to take part in the finalist interview process, you must be willing to travel to selected city or state to be interviewed by the Producers of the show. If selected as a participant, you must be willing to travel to Sweden and be part of the production

Each participant is also responsible for bringing a passport that is valid until at least December 2013, and one (1) other form of photo identification with them.

Final transportation following the completion of production of the Program will include economy airfare to return each participant to the airport closest to his or her home

You must be a United States citizen and live in the United States.

All applicants must be in reasonable physical and good mental health and must be aware and sign releases attesting to the fact that the activities in the Program may involve risks and hazards that they are willing to take.

By applying for participation in “Allt för Sverige” – The Great Swedish Adventure (The American title of the show), you authorize the Producers to conduct civil, criminal, financial, driver-history and any other type of background checks deemed necessary by the Producers.

The applicants will be required to cooperate fully with the Producers in connection with such background investigations.

Applicants must disclose to the Producers if they have ever been charged with a felony or misdemeanor, other than minor traffic or parking violations, and whether they have ever had a restraining order entered against them.

The Producers reserve the right in their discretion to disqualify any applicant based on such disclosures or any other information obtained by Producers.

All applicants must have a valid U.S. passport or be in the process of obtaining a passport (which must be completed in time for the applicant to travel internationally should the applicant be selected as a participant) and deliver a copy of such passport or proof of such passport application process at the time of the finalist callback

All participants must agree to interact with the other participants and cooperate with the Producers during the taping of the Program on a twenty-four-(24)-hours-a-day, seven-(7)-days-a-week basis. Participants must be able to travel for long periods of time, must be adaptable to various living and traveling situations and must enjoy living and traveling in close proximity with others of varied age, sex, race, background, and experience. All participants must agree to let the production film them in their home environment for use in the program. This is scheduled to take place during the first week of May, but dates may be changed at the Producers' sole discretion.

Participants must be willing to participate in the Program without any interruption during the production period, regardless of personal or religious practices.

Upon the Producers' request, all applicants and/or participants agree to sign and abide by the terms of any additional releases or authorizations that the Producers, in their sole discretion, deem necessary.

All applicants must abide by all applicable US laws during the application process and, if selected as a participant, Sweden law during the period in which the Program is being taped.

The Producers reserve the right to make additions to and/or deletions from the application process above or otherwise make any and all changes to the eligibility requirements with or without notice, including, but not limited to, changes to the locations, dates and/or times of the interviews. The Producers also reserve the right to contact applicants as well as their friends and family to ask additional questions and/or conduct phone interviews to gather additional information about applicants. Such phone interviews are not required and are at the Producers' sole discretion to assist in gathering information for participant selection. Without limiting the foregoing, the Producers reserve the right not to produce the Program.

All applications become the sole property of the Producers, and the video footage submitted may be used in the Production at the Producers sole discretion.

All decisions regarding the Program, including but not limited to, rules, eligibility, participant selection, Program production, game play, tasks, participant elimination and award of prizes, are at the Producers' sole and exclusive discretion, are final, and are not subject to appeal. Participants will be personally responsible for any taxes on any prizes and per diem. The applicants must sign statements acknowledging that they have read and will comply with all of the eligibility requirements described herein.

The Producers reserve the right to disqualify any participant for any reason, including, without limitation, any team member's tampering with the application process or the operation of the application process, threatening or harming another person, colluding with other participants to share prize winnings, or violating the Official Rules or other rules then in effect or the standards and practices and policies of the Producers. Disqualification may result in, among other things, immediate forfeiture of any prize otherwise awarded or awardable.

By submitting an application, each applicant agrees to release, discharge and hold harmless the Producers and SVT from all claims and damages arising out of his/her participation in the application process or the Program itself, and to have his or her name, voice and likeness used at the Producers' discretion as part of the Program, or as part of promotions for the Program, in any and all media now known or hereafter devised. By submitting this application, the applicant consents that any material recorded during production may be used and reused by the Producers, and any of their respective licensees, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, business units, or affiliated entities and affiliated companies.

Please mark the box at the Short audition application site that you are affirming that you understand all that is asked of these eligibility requirements.